Pediatric Gastroenterologists
Diplomates, American Board of Pediatrics'
Subboard of Pediatric Gastroenterology

Special Note for All Blue Cross and Blue Shield Patients

With the recent implementation of the Affordable Care Act, there have been significant changes to some of the insurance policies offered by Blue Cross and Blue Shield. To avoid any confusion as to whether or not Dr. Bahar or Collins is in network with you or your child's specific insurance plan, we suggest that you verify this status by logging on to your insurance company's respective website. Please login as a member to receive the most accurate information.

For Blue Shield Patients: www.blueshieldca.com

Please remember that it is ultimately your responsibility to determine you or your child's coverage. For patients who see either Dr. Bahar or Dr. Collins and are indeed not considered "in network," they/their custodian will still be required to pay the full "insured responsibility amount" as described in the explanation of benefits (EOB) statement they receive.

By signing below, you acknowledge your understanding the financial responsibilities described above.
